7. How should we make good use of God's Word in our ministry? 7 What can help us to make good use of God's Word in our ministry? A first step is to use it liberally when we preach and teach. One brother expressed the matter this way, "If you were preaching from house to house with Jehovah himself, would you do all the talking or would you let him speak?"

Violence is escalating in Central Mali, often neglected as the world focuses on problems in the country’s north. Radical groups and criminal gangs are exploiting years of short-sighted security policies that have lost the state much of its legitimacy. The government needs to recognise that state authority also rests on public services and dialogue with its people.
