John Evelyn. John Evelyn took even less note of the fire during its first hours than had Pepys. His journal entry for the 2nd, the day on which Pudding Lane first erupted, contains only the briefest of mentions. By the following day, however, Evelyn was drawn into the unfolding spectacle: I had public prayers at home.

Well, here it is. And this was truly a labor of love. During the two years since Sanctum published, I've steadily been writing not only Malachi's journal, but also some bonus scenes and the novella contained in this volume. This was not a small project—it's over 250-pages long. It contains: -All of Malachi's journal entries (more than 200) including 30 exclusive, never-before ...

Entry: 2/19/06 - Removal of the rear spring plates and torsion bars in a rusty 912 is a moment of truth. I've seen cars where the splines on the torsion bar are rusted tight and they can't be removed. If the splines on the torsion bar anchor points at the center of the car are damaged, I would be looking at a huge job of finding a good donor torsion bar tube and welding it into the body.
